

ALLIED ARMIES CUT GERMANY TO PIECES

Meandering Along the Main Stem
By WASH FAYETTE

Seems to me that a very young boy has coined a new term for Germany.

It all came about during a row between two very small boys, in the up-town district Saturday afternoon.

I don't know what the trouble was, but the two youngsters were glaring at each other apparently almost on the verge of battle.

"Go to Halifax!" said the first youngster.

"Go to—Germany!" said the second kid, and that must have struck the funny spot of each youngster, for they were both soon laughing once more.

Times have changed even in fire fighting, and the methods in use today, at least in Washington C. H., are a tremendous improvement over the old days when some of the firemen apparently believed that the more water they poured into a building, the sooner the fire was extinguished, with the result that water damage was frequently many times that caused by fire.

I have seen hundreds of fires in Washington C. H. and many years ago I stood on the sidelines and watched the drenching of houses and other buildings with so much water where it was doing no good, that it was a very common thing for the buildings to be thoroughly soaked from top to bottom, and most of the contents ruined.

Today fog nozzles and other modern equipment, intelligently used, soon extinguish ordinary fires with comparatively little water damage.

Now, where thousands of gallons of water from large hoses would be used in extinguishing fires, fog nozzles using a few gallons of water do virtually the same work, and hold damages to a minimum.

In Fayette County a lot of us have noted temperatures ranging all the way from 20 degrees below zero (upon very rare occasions) to 105 (also on rare occasions) and that is a pretty wide range.

However, Omaha, Nebraska, seems to lead most cities in the extreme range, as the official recording there has been 32 below zero in winter and 114 in summer.

The twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul top the list of 60 leading cities in the U. S. for real cold weather, the official recording there having been as low as 41 degrees below zero.

GERMAN SURRENDER NEAR, IS HINT

By LEWIS HAWKINS
By the Associated Press
Prime Minister Churchill hinted today that announcement of peace in Europe might come before Saturday, but told a packed House of Commons that he had no statement at this time.

He answered questions in the House as Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte conferred in Stockholm with Erik Boheman, undersecretary of state in the Swedish Foreign Office, after a quick flight from Copenhagen.

Bernadotte refused to tell news-men whether he had brought a new message from Heinrich Himmler. There were no signs that the Swedish Red Cross official had made a contact with Allied representatives in Stockholm, but such contact most likely would be established through the Swedish Foreign Office.

Danish underground sources in Sweden reported German troops were moving out of Sjaelland, the island on which Copenhagen is situated, toward southern Jutland.

A Danish radio broadcast from Malmø said the Germans had evacuated the Sjaelland towns of Slagelse, Næstved and Hillerød, and that German Red Cross workers were en route to Copenhagen to care for German refugees.

The American informant said that whether a final agreement on procedure in Norway had been reached was still uncertain, but he expressed belief the Swedes had proposed or that the Germans had requested transportation for their Norwegian forces to Sweden for disarmament.

The Allies have rejected one Himmler offer to capitulate because it was addressed only to Britain and the United States and did not include Soviet Russia.

There were no signs yet that Bernadotte had made a contact with Allied representatives here, but it was most likely this would be done through the Swedish Foreign Office.

Bernadotte appeared confident and was smiling broadly when he alighted this morning.

British authorities, far less optimistic than the London press over the possibility that peace can come through negotiations rather than a piecemeal breakup of Germany, guardedly considered the negotiations in the light of this question: "What has Himmler to gain?"

Unofficial British reaction was that the Himmler reports have served a useful purpose in demoralizing Germany's resistance and hastening her downfall, even if (Please Turn To Page Two)

Borneo Is Invaded As Japs Are Beaten Back On All Fronts

Another Airdrome Captured by Yanks on Bloody Okinawa and Advance on Davao Proceeds Against Surprisingly Light Opposition—Suicide Bombing Attacks on Naval Craft Prove Costly to Japs

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
(By the Associated Press)

Borneo is being invaded by Allied assault troops bent on reclaiming the oil producing islands of the Pacific, Tokyo radio reported today as Japanese troops were beaten back on every fighting front.

Japanese broadcasts said assault waves engaged Japanese troops near the Dutch Borneo port of Tarakan in fierce fighting last night after making one unsuccessful landing attempt during daylight.

Such an assault would represent a 200 mile jump from the southern Philippines into the northernmost oil islands in the Dutch Indies.

Invasion of Tarakan would be a continuation of the American drive southward through the Philippines and the beginning of an amphibious operation to return valuable oil producing areas to the Allies and bisect the Dutch East Indies.

Tarakan, a favorite target of American bombers which raided Borneo every day in April and all but seven days of March, lies midway between key Allied-held points and strategic Japanese-controlled cities. It lies on the northern approaches to Makassar Strait, 800 miles south of Manila, 800 miles north of Soerabaya, Java, 1,000 miles west of New Guinea, and 900 miles east of Saigon, Indo-China.

In the southern Philippines, the U. S. 24th Division brushed aside surprisingly light opposition as it advanced to within 17 miles of supposedly strongly-held Davao. Guerrillas captured Talikud Island guarding the approaches to Davao.

Tank supported infantrymen on Southern Okinawa captured Machinato airdrome on the west coast, began flanking Yonabaru airdrome on the east, and pushed to within half a mile of Shuri, strategically important town in the center of the line.

Fifty-nine Japanese planes were shot down in their continuing attack around Okinawa. Free-running American aircraft wrecked 56 Japanese vessels in strikes reaching from Japan down the length of the Asiatic coast.

Adm. Soemu Toyoda, commander-in-chief of what is left of Japan's combined fleet, was named overall commander of the Japanese Navy in a shake-up which may be a forerunner to another naval battle.

Tarakan has been one of the most frequent targets in daily bombings staged from the Philippines on Borneo for two months.

Northeast of Borneo on Mindanao Island of the Philippines, Yanks found heavily mined roads their greatest obstacle as they overran elaborate anti-aircraft and coastal defense positions in a ten (Please Turn To Page Two)

OHIO TAX SLATE NOW COMPLETE

Extender Bills Signed; Liquor Issue Revived

COLUMBUS, May 1.—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche completed his recommended tax program with the signing shortly before past midnight of legislation extending for two years the .65 utility excise tax estimated to produce nearly $5,000,000 annually for poor relief. The old measure expired at midnight.

Other tax legislation in his program were the two-cent cigarette tax and the cent-a-gallon liquid fuel levy, which produce about $11,000,000 a year each.

The wet and dry question bobbed up, meanwhile, at a hearing of the Senate liquor control committee, which invited Liquor Director Robert M. Sohngen to attend its next session.

Sen. Ray Hildebrand (R-Lucas) said he would introduce a bill to create a nine or 11-member commission to study in the next two years reclassification of liquor laws many of which he said were outmoded. Hildebrand already has introduced legislation designed to take the state out of the liquor business and return the business to private enterprise.

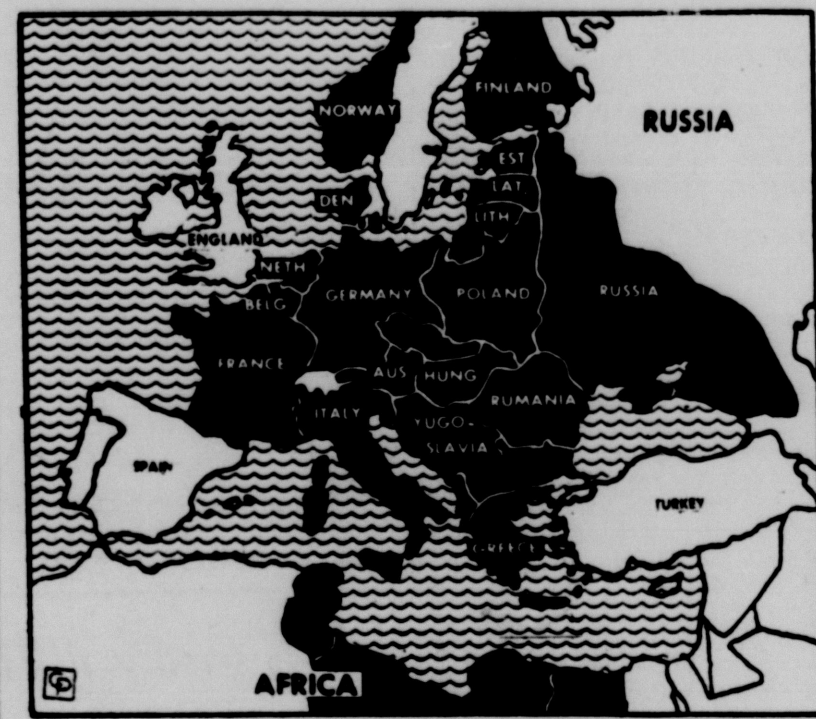

John Mitchell, representing the Anti-Saloon League, asserted a measure proposing a single $1,000 liquor license, instead of the present permit system, would mean a return of the old saloon.

Two other bills are before the committee. They would ban sale of intoxicants within a block of schools in municipalities, or within 500 yards in rural areas, and permit local subdivisions to regulate hours of sale.

Sen. George G. Shurtz (R-Coshocton) said towns which desired to require midnight closing of taverns, after the present curfew is lifted, should be permitted to do so. The State Board of Liquor Control now has authority to set hours during which bars may operate.

The House insurance committee by a 7-6 vote recommended a bill to tax both domestic and out-of-state insurance companies 2 percent of their premium payments.

The state now taxes only foreign firms at the rate of 2½ percent. Proponents of the new measure (Please Turn To Page Two)

CIVILIAN FOOD FACES NEW CUT

Americans To Share With Victims of Germans

By BRACK CURRY
WASHINGTON, May 1.—(AP)—Americans were told today a "decent diet" will be maintained despite a 25 percent slash in sugar rations and the prospect of higher point values for other foodstuffs.

Further civilian belt tightening was foreshadowed when:

1. Samuel I. Rosenman, presidential food scout, recommended that the United States should supply a "substantial share" of civilian needs in northwest Europe. He acknowledged this probably would cut into homefront food supplies.
2. The Inter-Agency Committee on foreign shipments said "we shall have to make some adjustments in particular foods," and hinted at higher ration points for fats and oils.

Mounting sentiment was evidenced in Congress for one-man control of all food matters, now divided among the OPA, the War Food Administration and other agencies.

Predicting a 5 to 10 percent slump this year in the nation's food production, the Inter-Agency Committee headed by Foreign Economic Administrator Leo T. Crowley termed the cut in sugar rations "a real sacrifice," but said: "The sacrifice will be small in comparison with the contribution it will make to the undernourished, if not actually starving, peoples of the liberated countries."

Of the American outlook, this committee, which allocates food and other supplies for overseas needs, said:

"Our food supply is adequate to keep America healthy and vigorous even though we shall have to make some adjustments in particular foods."

As the sharp slash in sugar rations went into effect today, the (Please Turn To Page Six)

Savage Fight Rages In Heart of Berlin As Reds Closing In

Russian Banner Raised Over Reichstag While, in Moscow, Stalin Proclaims May Day Victory—Yanks Dash Toward Hitler's Lair in Austria and Brenner Pass as British Drive To Cut Off Denmark

By The Associated Press
The Third Army crashed southward to within 58 miles of Berchtesgaden today as Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch sent his Seventh Army from captured Munich against Innsbruck and the Brenner Pass.

The Third Army entered Griesbach in its closest approach to Hitler's roost in the Alpine Redoubt. The town near the Austrian border is 16 miles from Hitler's birthplace at Braunau and 47 from Salzburg, eastern rampart of the final Nazi hideaway.

Allied armies had overrun all southern Germany except the

YANKS JOIN BRITISH

LONDON, May 1.—(AP)—The Hamburg radio tonight said American airborne troops and gliders landed in the British sector in the north German plain.

southeast corner of Bavaria and were sending their tanks and infantry into Austria and Czechoslovakia.

Far to the north, American airborne troops and the British Second Army linked up beyond the Elbe in a solid bridgehead 20 miles wide and 12 miles deep which threatened immediately to cut off Schleswig-Holstein and Denmark. This could carve the northern Redoubt in two.

In the center, the corridor between Germans in the south and north was widened by additional contacts between the Russians and American armies.

Seventh Army Infantry crossed the Austrian frontier and captured Scharnitz, ten miles from Innsbruck and 15 from the Brenner Pass.

The Nazis were attempting to hold back the American drive from the south toward the Brenner Pass in the area above Lake Garda. Apparently the Germans sought to reorganize their disjointed forces in northern Italy for the long, hard march up into the Alps. The New Zealand troops, driving toward a junction with Yugoslav Partisans in Trieste, were reported more than 15 miles beyond the Piave River.

In flaming Berlin the Russians were making a determined assault in an effort to capture the Reich capital on this May Day. The Reichstag, Heinrich Himmler's ministry of the interior and 200 blocks of buildings in the central part of the city were in Russian hands and Soviet troops were laying siege to Hitler's underground fortress in the Tiergarten.

The German air force made a last desperate attempt to parachute supplies to the besieged defenders of Berlin.

Russian troops driving into the last-ditch Nazi defenses in the Tiergarten had been told by Premier Marshal Stalin that the "last assault is on" and that the Russian people were celebrating May Day "under conditions of the victorious termination of the great patriotic war."

A Red victory banner floated over the smoking ruins of the Reichstag, where Hitler rose to power from the ashes of the Reichstag fire of 1933. Heinrich Himmler's ministry of the interior was in Russian hands. Red army troops laid siege to the fuhrer's underground fortress in the Tiergarten. The Russians were at the Brandenburg gate, Berlin's triumphal arch, and across the Spree River from Berlin's Cathedral.

The German high command declared today that the Berlin garrison, "rallying around our fuhrer and compressed in a small space," fought on "against superior Soviet arms."

Die-hard German remnants were compressed in the center of the blazing inferno that is Berlin, stubbornly keeping street crossings under a murderous fire and "killing in the process the civilian population of the city," a Moscow communique declared.

As a German broadcast conceded that the 11-day battle for the capital was as good as lost, Marshal Stalin said the Germans had lost 1,000,000 men killed and 800,000 captured on the eastern front in the last three or four months. He said the Nazis also lost 6,000 planes and 12,000 tanks. These latest figures ranked (Please Turn To Page Six)

COAL PROBLEMS PARTLY SOLVED

Soft Coal Miners Get Raise But Hard Coal Tied Up

WASHINGTON, May 1.—(AP)—John L. Lewis cleared the last government hurdle confronting his new soft coal contract today, but negotiations for an anthracite agreement skidded into the War Labor Board as a dispute.

Economic Stabilizer William H. Davis stamped a final okay on the bituminous wage agreement and authorized an average 16-cent-a-ton price increase to offset its costs to the operators.

The hard coal contract expired last midnight, and work stoppages in the anthracite pits were prepared for despite a WLB order to continue production under terms of the expired agreement. The board promised any wage agreements would be made retroactive to today.

Reds Get Set-Back At Security Meet; Tension Increases

Progress Slowed by Snags But Work on Conference Plans Continues Despite Speculation That Russia's Delegates May Go Home Before Program Complete

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—(AP)—The sting of a whiplash fight over Argentina and Poland drove the United Nations toward a new controversy today over who should control the critical commissions and committees of the World Security Conference.

This organizational problem normally might have gone through with unity and good feelings on all sides. It appeared likely, however, to intensify the struggle for leadership between the United States and Russia, which yesterday cast the Soviet Union a defeat on both Argentina and Poland.

Delegates generally seemed to feel that Russia would not pull out of the conference for this or similar reasons. The Russians, it was learned, are still discussing conference plans of the weeks ahead. But pessimism about the prospects for unity among the big powers was at a new low.

Some delegates speculated that several of the foreign secretaries heading their delegations may go home around the 10th to 15th of this month when the real conference work should be well underway and may be left to lesser officials. Molotov's name has figured in this speculation.

Foreign Commissar Molotov marched sternly to the speakers platform at a public session of the full conference late yesterday to demand a delay in inviting Argentina. Secretary Stettinius mounted to the rostrum a short time later to insist on immediate (Please Turn To Page Two)

MUSSOLINI'S BODY IS IN MILAN MORGUE

Fate of Graziani Not Known; Perhaps Executed

MILAN, May 1.—(AP)—The beaten, mishapen corpse of Benito Mussolini lay in a rude, wooden coffin in the Milan morgue today awaiting further disposition while conflicting reports spread over the fate of his military chief, Marshal Rodolfo Graziani.

One report said the former chief of staff of the Italian army was at Allied headquarters, where he had been taken by an American officer just before Graziani was scheduled to go on trial before a partisan group.

Other unofficial advices received at national liberation committee headquarters in Milan said Graziani had been sentenced to death and executed.

Yank Bluffs Nazi Guards Out of Massacre Threat

By EDWARD D. BALL
WITH THE U. S. 14th ARMORED DIVISION, May 1.—(AP)—In high spirits, 50,000 Americans, half of them air force officers, almost mobbed 14th Armored Division tankmen today in one of the wildest liberations ever witnessed in Germany.

The Americans were among 130,000 Allied prisoners—including 37 high-ranking officers—freed at Stalag 7A and in the towns around Moosburg where the Germans had the biggest concentration of prisoners.

The prisoners in the Moosburg area for the most part were in good physical condition. This was due to the presence among the prisoners of a number of Allied officers.

Germans Are Not What They Seem

Smiling and Friendly by Day But Sinister and Dangerous by Night, Yanks Learn

By HAL BOYLE
WITH THE U. S. FIRST ARMY IN GERMANY, April 30.—(AP)—Two American trucks came red balling down the highway at high speed as all army drivers love to drive on traffic-free roads.

Hidden by the night, a strong steel cable was stretched across the highway between two stout trees along a lonely forest stretch.

A second before his truck struck the cable, the leading driver got a blurred glimpse of it and ducked. The cable sheared through the cab and the truck swerved off the road as the truck behind it stopped with screaming brakes.

As two soldiers climbed out of the second truck to assist the dazed driver of the first a group of Germans swarmed from the forest and raked them with machine pistol fire. The Germans searched the trucks, took what they wanted, then fled.

Two members of the truck crews were killed, one was (Please Turn To Page Three)

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(By The Associated Press)
German atrocities—and more

Every hour adds to the record of Nazi infamy as that unholiest of all sins, defeat, sinks in. Small wonder that much of my reader mail has to do with Hitlerite savagery, which has sent Allied tempers over the boiling point. An editor on a southern newspaper writes:

"During my long service I have never read of anything to compare with the inhuman things being done to the poor victims that have fallen into these bastards' hands. . . . It might be an unchristian way to look at it, but I believe one of the most just punishments for the German race would be to sterilize every male and female left so there would be no more Germans to rise up in twenty-five or thirty years to start another world war."

Another editor proposes that a large number of substantial citizens of Germany, with their families, be uprooted and be distributed around the world in countries needing immigrants. He would substitute for them in Germany an equal number of citizens of other countries who would be given sufficient economic assistance to make the transfer attractive.

This second editor makes the point that the Germans are dangerous when massed because they are susceptible to regimentation. When they emigrate they become useful citizens. He also believes that the introduction of foreign blood into the Reich would have a beneficial effect on the race.

These suggestions likely will evoke sympathetic understanding in the average mind, for one hears widespread expression of the wish that in some way Germany might be rendered impotent to do further harm. However, the consensus of the Allied chiefs seems to be that the only feasible way to reform the Reich is by intensive education.

Such a program presents mountainous problems, and another editor—from the Middle West—asks:

"Assuming that every German with enough intelligence or courage to oppose Hitler has long since been liquidated, is it not fair to assume that the vast majority of Germans left under the Fuehrer are too completely debased to accept Allied tutelage? Is it ever possible to educate anyone at the point of a bayonet?"

We can say at once that you can't do a successful job of reformation at the point of a bayonet. It will require the greatest possible skill to make any educational program succeed, even if the big stick is kept discreetly out of sight.

However, it strikes me that in this idea of education lies our only hope. I believe we can make it

CHINCH BUGS PREPARATION IS UNDERWAY

County Agent Can Get Cresote For Farmers If It's Needed

If chinch bugs menace Fayette County's corn crop this year, machinery already is set up to start fighting them immediately.

The federal government is ready to aid Ohio corn growers in fighting the pests through providing cresote in carload lots which will be shipped to any Ohio point where parks and county agriculture agents believe control measures should be initiated.

W. W. Montgomery, county agent here, said as yet there was no indication of a chinch bug threat here, although he reminded farmers they usually don't show up until June. If they are noticed in numbers, farmers are asked to report them to Montgomery who will ask for control measures through the extension service. The cresote is used in building barriers to trap the insects as they leave early feeding grounds for corn fields.

The last chinch bug scourge in Fayette County was a decade ago, Montgomery said. "We used around 25 barrels of cresote that year. I hope we don't need it this year," he said.

work if we go at it the right way. Hitler has taught the world what can be done by intensive education. In less than a decade he completely changed the natures of most of the young folk of Germany, and even swung a host of older people into line.

Hitler achieved this in the case of children and youth by taking over their education altogether. He largely eliminated parental and church influence. He substituted paganism for religion and thus created a mentality that accepted the aggression and atrocities which he perpetrated. Destruction of religious belief in the young mind gave him his greatest strength.

If Hitler can change human nature, others can do it. The Allied problem will be to discover the right approach. Education at the hands of foreign conquerors might not be successful, whereas right-minded German educators—sympathetic with the Allied aim of helping their country—might succeed. This will be one of the greatest tests of ingenuity which the Allied will encounter in post-war planning.

GERMANS NOT WHAT THEY SEEM BY DAY; DANGEROUS AT NIGHT

wounded, and the fourth crawled unnoticed along a ditch and reported the trap to the nearest army post.

By the time an armed patrol returned to comb the forest the Germans had escaped.

This is just one of many incidents behind the lines indicating an increase in "werewolf" and terrorist activity.

Nazi underground movements waylay and ambush lone jeeps. They halt and steal civilian motorcars. They attack and kill soldiers who stray from camp. They distribute poisoned liquor and poisoned food. They cut wires and hide out with radios and send messages through the lines.

Army leaders do not regard these elements as a serious menace, but they are a considerable nuisance.

By day Germany seems to be a land of smiling, friendly people. They scowl less at the Americans now. Since the Russians' approach, the average German has shown a desire to warm up to the Yanks, whom he has found to be pretty easy going on the whole.

But at night Germany is a sinister and fearful land.

Each bush or tree may hide a sniper. If you drive a hundred miles alone anywhere in Germany at night you have a fair chance of hearing a wild potshot whistling past.

Even more of a problem than the scatterbrained Hitler youths with their sabotage kits and packs of explosives, and the over publicized "werewolf" organization, are German soldiers in civilian clothing who have filtered through our army lines with displaced foreign workers.

Many of these soldiers carry arms and know how to use them. Many are frustrated men looking for a chance to commit a spiteful deed to harass the enemy that whipped them. It will take weeks and months to find and imprison them all. Mostly, they work individually. But some are organized in gangs, cloaking criminal acts in the guise of serving a nation whose will they no longer represent.

For there is no doubt now of the German people's will toward peace. They want peace even if Nazi and militaristic leaders are planning already for another war by sending renegade Belgian and French agents back into their own countries to stir up dissension.

ADS IN NEWSPAPER ARE RATED AS BEST

Montgomery Ward Uses Them To Urge Gardening

"This month," states Earl C. Boodt, Montgomery Ward Store manager, "we are taking space in virtually every newspaper ad to urge the people in this community to plant bigger Victory Gardens. . . and to plant them now."

"In normal times," Boodt stated, "we would now be promoting our annual Spring Ward Week Sale with pages of newspaper advertising. We have found year after year that newspaper space is a most economical way of telling our customers of the Ward Week values."

"This year, merchandise shortages make it impossible to hold a nation-wide sale like Ward Week, but we are continuing to use newspaper advertising to present our Spring merchandise story to the public and to support government sponsored appeals."

On a nation-wide basis Mr. Boodt stated that Montgomery Ward is one of the largest users of newspaper space.

New Oven Saves Steps; Ups Baking Production

When you're slapping around five dozen-sized batches of dough and baking the pies by the hundreds, saving a few steps can mean a lot.

That's why Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porter, proprietors of Foutch's Bakery, have switched their cavernous kitchen, "hind side foremost," are baking more cookies, pies, cakes and rolls than ever and have lopped at least three hours from their working day.

Their old oven was far at the back of the baking room. Now, a brand new, gleaming enamel one holding four more baking pans is right at the front. A revolving ferris-wheel contraption with six trays inside the oven bakes the pastries evenly all the way round. A timer rings a bell when they're done. Besides that, the gas in the new oven can be turned off when it is not in use—a thing that was impossible with the old oven which has been discarded.

Putting the oven in the front of the kitchen makes it a sort of assembly line—first the gigantic mixers into which 60 eggs, 18 pounds of flour, four pounds of shortening, and 4 pounds of sugar are tossed to make 40 pounds of dough—what Porter calls nonchalantly "a small mix."

Once mixed, the dough is divided into five pound hunks which are rolled flat, flavored with any one of a variety of fillings, rolled into a six-foot coil and sliced into roll-sized pieces with a gadget that works like a rolling pin, looks like a multi-bladed lawn mower and cuts five dozen rolls faster than you can say, "How in the world do you do it so fast?"

Another time-saving piece of equipment just installed is a mammoth ice box which includes what is called technically a retarded dough box. What it does is to quick-freeze the unbaked pas-

OSU Parents Plan Supper For Thursday

The Ohio State University Parents' Association of Fayette County will have a covered dish supper at the home economics room of the Washington High School on Thursday evening, May 3, at 7 P.M. The association will furnish coffee and rolls and guests are also requested to bring table service.

To this meeting are invited not only the parents of students now in the university, but also the fathers and mothers of former students whose university career was interrupted by induction into the armed forces.

Ohio State University at the present time has about 800 returned service men and women on the campus and it is expected that many thousands more post-war veterans will return to Ohio State to make up for lost time in their civilian career. The problem of providing for the ever-increasing number of veterans is taken quite seriously by the university and more than 14,000 letters have been sent to men and women in service. More than 3,000 replies already have been received and these letters are being compiled and carefully studied.

The university is sending Dr. Hildreth, of the department of English, to consult with the fathers and mothers and he will take back their problems and their suggestions to President H. L. Bevis and other officials of the university. Discussions will be welcomed.

This meeting is being sponsored by Dr. J. A. McCoy, County Dad, and Mrs. J. A. McCoy, County Mother, the O.S.U. Mothers' Club of which Mrs. Bevil Cavine is president, Mrs. H. H. Denton, vice president, Mrs. Ethyl James, secretary, Miss Agnes Kerrigan, honorary scribe and university relations chairman.

City Bowling Championship Is Won By Foremen of API

The Foremen of the API today have the men's bowling championship tucked away under their belts after defeating the Mt. Sterling kieglers in a hotly-contested match at the Main Street alleys Monday night.

The first place notch in the women's tournament will not be filled until the Farmers' Exchange and Lloyd's Market quintets meet for the final match Tuesday night, however.

The Foremen took the first two games from Mt. Sterling with practically no trouble and, although the Sterlings took the last tilt the match was safely in the hands

Hopes of Cubs and Tigers Raised by Early Pitching

By JACK HAND

If pitching in the early games tells the story, the Detroit Tigers and Chicago Cubs are headed for an October World Series date.

While the Bengals have been slapping the ball at a 281 clip, Dizzy Trout, Al Benton and Hal Newhouser have been throttling the American League opponents with a measly .193 batting average.

Six of Charley Grimm's Bruin hurlers have tossed winning complete games in 11 starts and four of them have been five-hitters or lower. Tops in both circuits is the one-hitter effort of Hank Wyse against Pittsburgh, spoiled only by rookie Bill Salkeld's eighth inning single.

The home run ball has not been troublesome to either Detroit or Chicago, the Tiger staff having blanked the long distance sluggers and the Cubs yielded only a pair. Every mound crew has given up at least one circuit clout, except Steve O'Neill's gang.

Russ Derry belted half the New York Yankees total of eight homers, in the American League, but their rivals across the Harlem River, the New York Giants, have collected 13 and the Boston Braves 11, thanks to Butch Nieman and that shortened right field wall.

Nine shutouts have been pitched in the National, three by Chicago with Claude Passeau, Bob Chipman and Wyse each contributing one. Of the seven hurled in the American, Detroit has three, two by Trout and one by Benton.

Things were so tough during spring training days, Grimm had to borrow veterans Hod Lisenbee and Guy Bush from the Reds so they could play an exhibition. Now his average of two moundsmen a day is not far behind the Brooklyn figure of 17 pitchers in 10 contests. Detroit used only 12 in nine tilts.

Pittsburgh's slow start can be attributed to failure of Frankie Frisch's tossers to go the route, only three complete performances by 11 starters. The Bucs have only two circuit clouts but that's better than the world champion St. Louis Cards who are still looking for their first homer.

Of last year's six 20-game winners only two have more than one victory to their credit. Bill Voiselle of the Giants and Trout each have 3-0 records but Rip Sewell of Pittsburgh and Newhouser are struggling along with 1-2 marks.

Bucky Walters of Cincinnati hasn't won yet in four starts, being charged with two defeats and Mort Cooper of the Cards got away to a slow start after his salary dispute and has only one victory.

The Phillies' pitching has been almost as shaky as the Pirates. Yesterday was an open date in both leagues.

Chisox Pitching Ace Undergoes Operation

CHICAGO, May 1—(AP)—Bill Dietrich, who won 16 games for the Chicago White Sox last season, may be lost to the current American leaders for a month, because of an operation on his pitching elbow from which four bone chips were removed. The veteran right hander, who won his only start this season, will be released from a hospital in a couple of days, said Dr. John Claridge, who described the operation as "highly successful."

New Kind of Sports

CLEVELAND, May 1—(AP)—Promoter Jack Ganson announced he would introduce Australian tag team wrestling to Cleveland Monday if the Boxing and Wrestling Commission gives its permission. He said the sport calls for a pair of two-man teams.

—Spying— On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 1—(AP)—The Brooklyn American Legion outfit that wanted to buy the Dodgers last year, now is reported showing interest in building an indoor sports arena as a war memorial. Officials already have held several consultations with Red Dutton, who still owns the Brooklyn Hockey Franchise. In Newark, N. J., the Legionnaires hope to stage a revival of bicycle racing, once a popular sport in New Jersey. Other Legion posts may be similarly promotion-minded and there should be a big field for such things after the war. The commission for living war memorials is corresponding with some 900 cities and towns that are planning memorials of this type.

One Minute Sports Page

The University of Richmond baseball team scored 63 runs in winning its first four games. The Spiders will settle for the same scores in football next fall. Charley Beaudry, marquette sprinter who won the Drake Relays dash, teaches French at the University High School. Ray Dumont has 150 radio stations giving away baseball rule books to kids and expects to distribute about 300,000 copies. The two high series scores for the year among 4,500 Peoria, Ill., bowlers were turned in by Hank Reichelderfer—725—and his wife, Vera—675. Oscar Tuero, a youngster of 48 who hurled a no-hitter in the Texas League 20 years ago, pitched and won his first game of 45 for Houston, Texas, semi-pro team the other day. A couple more and the Reds will get him.

INTEREST IN BASEBALL ON UPSWING HERE NOW

Baseball donned its red flannels, so to speak, and prepared to shiver through winter's final fling, if need be, in order to get the season off to an early start here.

Within half a dozen counties in this immediate vicinity, baseball fever is mounting. There are bits of evidence of it scattered everywhere. Sports chatter paints phantom pictures of years gone by—and not so very long ago, at that—when rivalry waxed long and loud within this very circle; when crowds of old and young gathered to back the home team and bounce blistering tirades off the tough necks of the umpires.

The upshot of it all is a movement to organize a league of teams in towns around Washington C. H. How far it has progressed is conjectural, but indications are that it is still moving slowly but surely.

Back of the reawakening of interest in baseball in boldest relief are the recently organized Eagles and Bob Bailey, secretary of the lodge here and the moving spirit behind the projected league. Bob takes a practical and long range view of the present situation and is convinced there are players who have possibilities for development into professionals—even major league material.

Already there are good teams in Good Hope, Sabina and Greenfield and others in the making not much farther away. But, they are all up against the same old problem—that of finding opponents. A league, Bailey believes, will not only be the answer, but also would lend itself to greater fan interest and more spirited competition.

A. A. Herdman (phone 29142) is looking for opponents now. So are the managers of the other teams.

Tug Wilson Takes Over

CHICAGO, May 1—(AP)—Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson today assumed office as the second athletic commissioner in Western Conference history, succeeding the man who helped him start his athletic administrative career a quarter of a century ago.

Wilson, 48, one-time Olympic javelin-thrower and athletic director at Northwestern University for 20 years, formally replaced the late Maj. John L. Griffith approximately five months after the original Big Ten boss died at his desk of an heart attack last Dec. 7.

Wilson's salary has not been disclosed, but it is believed to be $15,000 annually, compared with $10,000 received by Griffith.

ALLIES CUT UP GERMANY AS REDS PRESS CONQUEST OF BERLIN ON MAY DAY

German casualties announced by Moscow in less than four years of war to 1,540,000.

Soviet troops began ripping Nazi defenders of the capital into two isolated pockets, each less than nine miles square.

On behalf of the troops under his command Gen. Eisenhower in a special order of the day extended congratulations to the U. S. Seventh Army for its seizure of Munich, which he called "the cradle of the Nazi beast."

At last reports Seventh Army units were within a dozen miles of Innsbruck and 20 miles of the Brenner Pass. Probably no more than 110 miles separated the Seventh Army from Gen. Mark Clark's victorious troops in Italy but the Alps lay between these two forces.

On the Seventh Army's right flank the French First Army plunged into Austria and captured Friedrichshafen, where the Germans once made zeppelins.

The Third Army units driving on Berchtesgaden reached a point 12 miles south of the Isar River in the 20-mile bridgehead extending northeast and southwest of Landau. Gen. Patton's troops were 53 miles from Salzburg and only about 20 miles from Braunau, where Hitler was born.

In the drive to Hem in Czechoslovakia Patton's 11th armored division crossed the Austrian border at Oberkappel, 27 miles northwest of Linz. The Germans said that Linz was being approached by the Russians from the west.

British troops in the north increased the menace to Hamburg. Luebeck and the whole Danish Peninsula.

Stalin, dressed in a summer uniform and standing on Lenin's marble tomb in the Kremlin Square, led the Soviet Union to Day, celebrations in the history of the 27-year-old Soviet government.

Stalin was greeted with thunderous applause. He joked with his associates and with members of the diplomatic corps, who were out in force to witness the spectacle.

The celebration was one of the greatest because the people expected the war to end soon. In the words of Marshal Stalin the Red Army, with its American and British Allies, had smashed the Wehrmacht, carried the battle into the heart of Germany and won the respect of the freedom loving peoples of the world.

Gen. Alexei Antonov, chief of staff, declared that, "for the first time in this war, our motherland is completely and forever cleared (of the enemy)."

Thousands of men, tanks, guns and military vehicles paraded through the Red Square. Overhead Russian planes roared. A 1,200-piece band played.

Stalin in a general order of the day proclaimed that the end of

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, May 1—(AP)—Selected steels, motors and assorted industrials recovered in today's stock market, following an early profit taking stumble, but rails and many leaders elsewhere remained in the losing division.

Breadth of the swing to 8-year peaks inspired further caution because of the feeling a quick ending of the European war could touch off a sizable technical reaction in stock investment funds, however, still were searching for income payers and this influence provided a prop for trends.

Hitler's Germany was imminent and vowing the destruction of Fascism by the United Nations. "Our country is celebrating May 1—an international holiday of the working people," said his order, addressed to all the armed forces and to the people. "This year the people of our motherland are celebrating May Day under conditions of a victorious termination of a great patriotic war."

AMERICAN CIVILIANS FACING NEW CUTS IN FOOD IN NEAR FUTURE

government said no increase in the total supply can be expected for more than a year.

The average American, who last year consumed 89 pounds of sugar, will receive only 72.1 pounds this year. Sugar stamp 36, which became valid today for five pounds, must last until September 1.

The OPA also directed local boards to issue only up to 70 percent as much sugar for home canning as they did last year and reduced the maximum per person to 15 pounds instead of 20. The limit to any family for home canning was pared from 160 to 120 pounds.

The Office of War Information said the reductions were necessary because of a decline in world sugar production and an increase in military and export demands as a result of Europe's liberation and intensification of the Pacific war.

Crowley said the amount of sugar going to liberated areas would be "very modest."

Get ready for spring with PTZ

Don't send sheep to pasture carrying a load of roundworms. First thing they'll do is contaminate the pasture and make it just that much harder to keep worms under control. What you want with is very important—and there is no better product for the pre-pasture-season worming than PTZ.

An accurate, individual dose is also important at this time, we think, because it makes sure every animal gets a worm-killing dose. Use either PTZ Pellets or PTZ Powder in a drench. PTZ Powder in lb. packages is $1.25 and less in quantity.

SCHOOL LEVY IS APPROVED BY TWO GROUPS

City Teachers, P-TA Council Stamp OK on Four Mill Levy To Be Voted On

Unanimous support of the four mill school levy to be voted on here November 6 was voiced by the Washington C. H. City Teachers Association and the P-TA Council in meetings at the high school Monday afternoon.

The new levy will displace the special three mill levy voted two years ago. As set up by the board of education the extra mill will provide salary adjustments so that full time replacements can be secured and to provide enough teachers to take care of the growing elementary school enrollment. The new levy will bring Washington C. H. in line with other cities of the same size, A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, said. He indicates the salary adjustments would be made after the safe passage of the bill, probably to take effect after January 1, 1946.

The three mill emergency levy two years ago was passed by 87 percent of the voters, Murray pointed out. The levy was made for only two years because that is the limit set on special election levies.

Teachers' Association

Maj. Walter L. Collins, on military leave from the State Department of Education and former president of Wilmington College, spoke on education as he found it in North Africa, Sicily, Sardinia and Italy at the teachers' meeting in the little theater of the high school.

At that meeting J. M. York was named the new president with Miss Jane Durant, vice president; Miss Helen Hutson, secretary and Mrs. Loreah O'Brian, treasurer. Miss Margaret Gibson is the retiring president.

Maj. Collins studied the French-controlled educational program in North Africa, which excluded women but welcomed Arab boys. "The schools are centralized and boys come from some distances. They come in knowing the Arab language but are taught French after the first year. They are taught a small amount of arithmetic and history but the schools are operated under a very strict military type of discipline. They are assigned a very definite quantity of work to do and they do it. Nowhere in the educational system is any particular attention given to the individual. Hence no progress is made," Maj. Collins said.

First hand studies also were made in Italy. "If the education of the children is left in the hands of the teachers there is little to worry about for they are very anxious to drop out of the Fascist organization which they, being better educated than the masses, did not believe in. However, the Italians love organization and will use the Boy Scout and Girl Scout movement to answer this need," Maj. Collins said.

P-TA Council

Mrs. Charles Hurtt was named president of the P-TA council for the next school year at a meeting which immediately preceded the teachers' group session. The council attended the teachers' meeting after its own meeting.

Mrs. Darrell Williams, first vice president; Robert Terhune, second vice president; Mrs. John O'Connor, third vice president; Mrs. F. E. Hill, secretary and Stephen C. Brown, treasurer, were other officers named.

Mrs. Williams, who is the retiring president, urged presidents of the five P-TA's in the city to call on parents of children who will enter the first grade next fall to urge their coming to the pre-school clinic now current in the city schools.

The death warrant for James W. Collett, returned to Clerk of Courts Mrs. Dorothy West, a day or two after Collett was executed, with the return showing Collett had been received at the Penitentiary on March 31, 1945, instead of March 31, 1944, is again back in the hands of the Clerk with date corrected by Warden F. D. Henderson.

550 CARTONS OF CLOTHING ARE COLLECTED

Eight Tons of Garments Go To European War Refugees

Fayette County today is minus eight tons of clothing which were dug out of closets, attics and cedar chests to be given to the United National Clothing Collection.

The drive for the used clothing which was given to be sent to European war refugees, ended Monday and no more clothes will be collected. Those eight tons filled 550 cartons.

Originally, the collection plan was for each organization to form a separate collecting, sorting and packing unit—and most of the garments were gathered that way. A city-wide collection Friday and a county-wide pick-up Monday finished the job and took care of any loose ends which may have been neglected inadvertently by the organizations.

Stored at the old county infirmary, the clothes are to be sent to headquarters for shipment to Europe.

AGED RESIDENT DIES EARLY MONDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Martha Anderson Is Summoned

Mrs. Martha Anderson, aged 88 years, died Monday at 8:30 P. M. at the home of her son, James P. Anderson, Midland Avenue, Bloomington. Mrs. Anderson had been in ill health for four months. She was the widow of Joseph Anderson, who died 13 years ago.

Mrs. Anderson had lived most of her life in Pike County, and had resided in Fayette County eight years.

She was a member of the Church of Christ in Christian Union. In addition to her son she leaves eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 P. M. (fast time) at the Klever Funeral Home, and burial will be made in the Greenlawn Cemetery, Chillicothe. Rev. Henry Leeth will conduct the services.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

Reindeer in Canada and Alaska are usually brown and grey in color.

HEAVY FREEZE DURING NIGHT CAUSES DAMAGE

More Frost in Offing for Tuesday Night Is Forecast

Fayette County was subjected to a heavy freeze, Monday night, when the mercury dipped to an official reading of 29 degrees and unofficially it reached several degrees lower in exposed places, with the result that ice was frozen and a heavy coat of frost spread over the entire community.

Fears are expressed for the fruit which is now at a stage where such temperatures may kill part or all of it. However, it will be a day or two before the extent of the damage can be ascertained.

Damage to tender plants and to the wheat is seen, although the wheat is expected to come through the freeze in fair condition. Spring sown clover and timothy may be nipped by the low temperatures.

While the low temperature is little below the reading on the same date last year, when it was 32, vegetation and crops generally are much farther advanced than they were last year and heavier damage is seen.

Monday's low was 33 degrees and the peak 66 degrees. At 8 A. M. Tuesday the temperature had risen to 39 degrees and was expected to mount into the sixties during the day.

The light of the moon probably helped hold damage to a minimum Monday night, it is pointed out by some observers.

OSU PROFESSOR GUEST LEADER AT CONFERENCE

Farm Bureau Council Officers Presented 15 Point Program

A 15-point program of discussion Monday night was outlined before officers of Fayette County's Farm Bureau Councils when Prof. J. P. Schmidt, supervisor of Farmers' Institutes and a member of the rural economics department at Ohio State University, appeared as guest discussion leader.

The 15 points which Prof. Schmidt introduced for affirmative or negative opinions were:

1. Wars are inevitable.
2. The Great Powers Pact would be a more accurate term than Dumbarton Oaks Conference.
3. United Nations Organization, both in fact and name, means more than League of Nations.
4. Dumbarton Oaks nullifies the Atlantic Charter.
5. The Security Council is the tail that wags the dog.
6. As goes UNRRA, so goes the acceptance of the United Nations Organization by liberated countries.
7. Yalta and Dumbarton Oaks have left too little to San Francisco.
8. A United Nations Organization will stand or fall on the Polish question.
9. What we need is power to prevent secession rather than authority to expel the misbehaving members of a United Nations Organization.
10. A Constitution of the United Nations, rather than a charter, should be adopted.
11. The United States should keep the islands taken from Japan.
12. Over-production of crops causes more international problems than does undernourishment of people.
13. The United States should maintain those tariffs that protect the American standard of living.
14. Better trust bankers than politicians to decide whether the Bretton Woods proposals should be accepted by the United States.

15. The world has passed from the era of peace-making by treaty into the stage of a law enforced peace.

Nearly 40 men and women attended the meeting in the Farm Bureau offices on Delaware Street. Mrs. Justin Owens and Mrs. Reuben French each appeared on the program to relate some of the activities of the councils here. Special stress was laid on the importance of accuracy in taking minutes of the council meetings. W. W. Montgomery, county agent, is secretary of the officers' council, which meets quarterly.
